Guidance Notes

HE – Discretionary Support Fund

Discretionary Support Fund payment is either a maximum of a £600 cash payment paid in two instalments OR a bus pass/in-college meal allowance (in line with the 19+ meal allowance rules).

- This payment is made at the discretion of the College Management who may ask you to provide details of your household income and outgoings.
- Students receiving the Continuing Student Grant can claim the Discretionary Support Fund but must include this payment in their assessment.
- The evidence provided must demonstrate that the student is in dire financial need which could impact their study and completion of their course.
- Students are only able to claim one DSF per academic year.
- Students who withdraw from their course between payments will not be eligible for the second payment.
- This allocation is from a limited fund, once the fund has been exhausted, it will not be renewed until the following academic year.

To be qualify you must:

- be a home or EU (Settled Status) student
- be paying the required tuition fee for your full time or part time course using a tuition fee loan from Student Finance England (SFE)
